

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME 18-22 MARCH 2024
MEDIA UNIT – CAMPUS MECHELEN (DE HAM) - BELGIUM
 International Communication & Media

Monday 18 March	Arrival Day in Mechelen 18h00 – 19h00: welcoming drink 19h00: dinner
Tuesday 19 March	CAMPUS DE NAYER/MECHELEN – CENTRAL DAY Democracy or Democrazy : navigating the impact of AI on society 09h00 – 11h00: Welcome @Campus Mechelen Meet & Greet Introduction Thomas More International support @Thomas More: How do we support our international degree students? The Thomas More Approach starts as from their first day in Mechelen and even way before. 11h00: Walk to the train station – train to Campus De Nayer 11h30-12h00: Central Day for all campuses of Thomas More Lunch Keynote speaker 14h45: Walk to the train station – train to Mechelen 15h30: Network activities 17h30 – 21h00: Dinner @Campus Faydherbe
Wednesday 20 March	CAMPUS DE HAM – MECHELEN 08h45: Get together @Campus De Ham – Mechelen 09h15 – 11h30: Guest lectures or meetings 11h45 – 12h45: Campus tour 12h45 – 13h45: Network lunch with Thomas More lecturers 14h00 – 17h00: Guest lectures or meetings Evening: Free
Thursday 21 March	CAMPUS DE VEST – MECHELEN 08h45: Get together @Campus De Vest – Mechelen 09h00 – 11h00: Workshop on Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL) - Virtual Exchanges: Small to extra- large initiatives: a few best practices + Call for partners 24-25 11h15 – 13h00: Workshop “AI in an educational way” 13h00 – 14h00: Lunch 14h00 – 17h00: International fair “Study abroad” for Thomas More students Incoming students and guest lecturers pitch their university Evening: free
Friday 22 March	OPTIONAL VISIT GENT Join us for a fun optional activity exploring the city of Gent! The highlight of this activity is a visit to the iconic Lam Gods, complemented by insights from two of our knowledgeable Thomas More colleagues who know the city inside out. We start the activity at 10:15 in Gent Sint-Pieters train station. To secure your spot, please confirm your attendance. (as space is limited – booking is on a first come first serve bases)